

The video series uses an Arduino Mega 2560 to monitor the bus signals used by the computer, this way code can be stepped through (at a low frequency) without the use of a logic analyzer. This module acts as an Arduino shield that maps out all the signals as well as doubling up as a 2/3 slot backplane for your own expansions.

Sheet: /		File: BE6502 Mega Adapter.sch
Size: A3		Date:
KiCad E.D.A. kicad 4.0.7		Rev: A
Id: 1/1			